EXPERIENCE

Product Manager — Muvment by Autogirl

Nov 2025 to Present · Lagos, Nigeria (Remote)

- Built Prodlisis, a data analytics comparison platform that solved the problem of inaccurate analysis of user data and dropoffs. This platform compared previous and current user dropoff reports, which suggested a UI revamp to be done to a button that reduced user dropoffs by about 45% on the Muvment customer platform.
- Gathered feedback from 30+ hosts, driving a full platform revamp that automated onboarding and improved satisfaction for 1,000+ host users.
- Led and designed an improved vehicle booking flow for 5,000+ users; achieved 30%+ adoption in month one and grew monthly bookings 35% (200 → 270+) within 4-5 months.

Founding Product Manager — WarbleLive

September 2025 to May 2026 · Lagos, Nigeria (Remote)

- Built product roadmap and MVP prototype using Claude for free event/RSVP and off-chain ticket verification that was adopted by the engineering team for implementation, supporting a 3,000+ attendee live event.
- Collaborated with engineers to prioritize the free event feature first, validating the ticketing chaos hypothesis, adopted by 10+ event companies within 2 months of launch.
- Built the paid/on-chain ticketing feature leveraging 500+ early adopter feedback, improving re-iteration speed by 30%.

Product Manager Intern — Stanix Consults

July 2025 to October 2025 · Lagos, Nigeria (Remote)

- Built MentorOS (mock project) using Figma and Whimsical; designed sitemaps and prototypes that improved execution speed ~30%.
- Conducted 20+ mentor and 50+ mentee interviews, driving 25% improvement in flow clarity through user feedback and QA testing.

Student Advisor Intern — ESEI International Business School

June 2024 to February 2025 · Barcelona, Spain (Hybrid)

- Managed end-to-end EU student admissions pipeline, evaluating candidate profiles and coordinating cross-functional processes across documentation, enrolment, and relocation, developing a strong foundation in user journey mapping and stakeholder management.
- Identified and resolved friction points in the student onboarding experience by streamlining documentation workflows and standardizing communication processes, reducing delays and improving overall satisfaction.
- Acted as the primary point of contact between prospective students and internal teams, gathering user needs and translating them into actionable support solutions, directly mirroring product discovery and requirements gathering.
- Tracked candidates applications using Zoho CRM system, leveraging customer data to track inquiries, manage pipelines, and improve applicant engagement by about 40%.

Content Presenter — British Council / IELTS

October 2024 to February 2025 · Barcelona, Spain (In person)

- Defined and executed a content strategy for Instagram and TikTok, translating complex learning objectives into concise, high-retention short-form content, demonstrating product thinking around user needs, engagement, and accessibility.
- Leveraged audience feedback and platform performance signals to iterate on content formats, applying a data-informed approach to improve reach and learner engagement.
- Collaborated cross-functionally to align educational goals with content delivery, balancing stakeholder expectations with end-user needs in a fast paced, agile environment.

Executive Assistant — Orbra Company

January 2023 to September 2023 · Abuja, Nigeria (Remote)

- Partnered directly with the CEO to manage strategic priorities, facilitate stakeholder communications, and coordinate cross-functional operations gaining executive-level exposure to business decisions and product direction.
- Reviewed and audited online courses prior to platform launch, identifying inconsistencies and flagging quality gaps, functioning as a QA and product reviewer ensuring a polished user-facing experience.

- Developed go-to-market (GTM) strategies and supporting content for course launches, collaborating with facilitators and partners to drive product visibility, adoption, and audience growth.

Project Manager — D VeeChee Xperience

March 2021 to December 2021 · Abuja, Nigeria (Remote)

- Identified and pitched a strategic product concept that secured the company's first major client engagement, contributing to an estimated 20–30% growth in annual revenue within the first year.
- Acted as a key cross-functional liaison, resolving conflicts between internal teams and external vendors to maintain project momentum and ensure on-time delivery across 3–5 large-scale events (500–1,000 guests) annually.
- Conducted regular one-on-ones and progress reviews with a team of 8–12, proactively surfacing blockers and maintaining a 90%+ on schedule delivery rate across all programmes.
- Facilitated brainstorming and programme critique sessions that reduced concept-to-execution turnaround by an estimated 15–20%, fostering a culture of continuous improvement.
- Partnered with the marketing team to deliver go-to-market materials for product launches and campaigns, supporting events that collectively reached 2,000–5,000 attendees per year.

Founder / Creative Director — Fabricator Africa

March 2016 to December 2020 · Abuja, Nigeria (Remote)

- Conceptualised and launched 2–3 bespoke collections annually, each receiving industry recognition for distinctive style and setting measurable trends within Nigeria's luxury fashion market.
- Managed end-to-end custom piece delivery for an estimated 20–30 high-profile clients and celebrities per year, maintaining a 95%+ client satisfaction rate reflected in repeat commissions and referrals.
- Applied trend forecasting and market analysis to inform collection direction, resulting in an estimated 25% improvement in collection-to-sales conversion by consistently anticipating evolving client tastes.
- Developed and executed a comprehensive brand strategy that grew the brand's national recognition, achieving an estimated 30–40% increase in inbound client enquiries over 2 years through strategic positioning.
- Drove brand expansion through 5–8 strategic partnerships, exclusive events, and collaborations, solidifying the brand's reputation as a leading name in Nigeria's bespoke fashion landscape.
